

Ted M. Shoub

Partner

Co-Head of Commercial Transactions Practice

T: 416.777.5743 / E: shoubt@bennettjones.com

Toronto

EDUCATION

York University, BA (Hons., Political Science), 1992

University of Toronto, MA (Political Science), 1993

University of British Columbia, LLB, 1998

BAR ADMISSIONS

Ontario, 2000

Ted Shoub has a corporate commercial practice and advises private companies on mergers and acquisitions, financings, partnership/shareholder/joint venture agreements, distribution and licensing agreements, corporate governance, corporate reorganizations, general corporate matters, as well as day-to-day commercial matters.

Ted has worked with clients in a broad range of industries, including manufacturing, agribusiness, engineering, architecture and other professional services, financial services, construction, cannabis, pharmaceuticals and software.

Ted is co-head of the firm's Canada - Israel Initiative, focused on advising Israeli companies looking to raise capital in or make investments in Canada or to expand their businesses into Canada, as well as on Canadian companies looking to invest in Israel or to partner with Israeli companies. Ted is one of the founders of "The Maple & Honey Forum" (LinkedIn), which serves as a premier platform for investing and growing businesses interested in leveraging the Canada-Israel relationship.

Prior to joining Bennett Jones, Ted was a partner in another international law firm.