Jason Wang has a corporate and securities law practice with a focus on public and private mergers and acquisitions, public and private equity and debt financings, and capital market transactions. His experience includes acting for:

- issuers and underwriters/agents in private and public equity and debt offerings, including cross-border financings, financial advisory services, and regulatory compliance matters;
- public and private companies in mergers and acquisitions transactions including share and asset purchases, amalgamations, and plans of arrangement; and
- advising clients on corporate and securities law matters, including with respect to corporate governance, continuous disclosure requirements, and other regulatory compliance issues.

Before joining Bennett Jones, Jason was an associate in the Calgary office of another national law firm.

Jason is also currently a board member of Startup Grind Calgary, an internationally focused startup organization that educates, inspires, and connects entrepreneurs across international chapters.
