Our Commitment to Continuing Legal Education – Substantive and Professionalism Courses 2024

We are delighted to welcome you to our Bennett Jones Academy (BJA) Curriculum, specifically designed for students, which has been created to highlight our upcoming courses in 2024. At Bennett Jones LLP, we are committed to helping our students and lawyers reach their highest potential as professionals, consistent with the firm's standard of excellence in client service. BJA is a comprehensive, integrated system that provides you with the tools, opportunities and support to excel in the legal profession.

Our student specific courses are delivered in the summer and early fall in order to ensure that our summer and articling students receive continuing legal education seminars that introduce you to the firm, the practice of law and some of the basic principles of law that will support you in your efforts to hit the ground running as a new legal professional.

The student curriculum is one part of our overall, firm-wide, BJA offerings. Our broader BJA offerings, delivered year round, are designed to build the best possible foundation and enhance the skills and knowledge of our lawyers at every stage of their careers. Our orientation and introductory programs provide you with the framework and tools for understanding the legal, business, ethical and practical issues you are likely to encounter in the first years of practice. Our professionalism courses support you as you grow into more senior supervisory and leadership roles and our advanced substantive programs help you keep abreast of developments in your area of practice and continue to hone your skills and expertise.

We believe in providing top-notch, value-added programming for our students and lawyers and are pleased to be offering a wide range of substantive and professionalism courses for 2024.

Our substantive courses range from understanding private equity transactions from both the legal and client perspectives, to trial preparation and mergers and acquisitions. Our professionalism courses include advanced transactional drafting, negotiation ethics and applying science to improve our health and wellness.

As you review this booklet, you will see that we have laid out the 2024 student sessions so you can know specifically what you will be learning and who will be delivering those sessions. We have also outlined a sampling of other courses that were offered previously or are planned for 2024 in order to provide you with a good sense of the overall BJA offerings that are provided to all students and lawyers.

We hope you will enjoy attending our courses, learning about the latest developments and trends in the law and gaining an insight into different areas of professionalism.

Date: Summer / Fall, 2024

Lunch: 11:45 a.m. – 12:00 p.m.

Course: 12:00 p.m. – 1:15 p.m.

Course Overview

Each of our department heads will take the opportunity to introduce you to their broad areas of practice, how their practices have evolved over the course of their careers and how all of our different practice areas work together to provide excellence in all client services.

This is also an opportunity to learn, in a casual setting, how each department functions, how work-flows, how teams are formed for particular transactions or advocacy opportunities and to get a sense of the people and culture of Bennett Jones.

Faculty

Brent W. Kraus

Partner, Co-Head of Corporate Department; Co-Head of Mergers & Acquisitions

Brent Kraus focuses on public and private mergers and acquisitions and capital market transactions, as well as corporate governance and shareholder activism.

Brent is also a former co-head of the firm's Capital Markets and Mergers & Acquisitions practice and was a member of the firm's Partnership Board from 2016 to 2021. Brent is a member of the Board of Directors of the Association for the Rehabilitation of the Brain Injured (ARBI) and is corporate secretary for several private companies.

Prior to joining Bennett Jones, he served as law clerk to Mr. Justice J.C. Major at the Supreme Court of Canada.

Christine Plante

Partner, Co-Head of Litigation and Dispute Resolution Department

Christine Plante provides full-service legal advice and representation for all employment, labour and human resource needs. She effectively represents clients at all level of court and in administrative hearings, arbitrations and mediations. Her experience as corporate counsel to a large federally-regulated employer offers a unique perspective to providing client services. She has a number of reported decisions defending wrongful and constructive dismissals and enforcing restrictive covenants.

Christine believes in mentorship and philanthropy. She is the Vice-Chair for the Board of Directors of the Brenda Strafford Society for the Prevention of Domestic Violence and Chair for the Human Resources Committee.

Anu Nijhawan

Partner, Co-Head of Tax Department

Anu Nijhawan is a partner in and the co-Head of the Bennett Jones National Tax Group. She provides client-centered and pro-active tax expertise to meet the needs of her clients in their most complex issues. Anu has extensive experience advising a diverse client base on the income tax aspects of corporate and partnership reorganizations, mergers and acquisitions, debt and equity financing transactions, and resource taxation issues. Her practice encompasses all aspects of income tax issues related to international structures for Canadian-based multinational corporations, on investments by non-residents in Canada, and on structuring cross-border acquisitions, divestitures, financings, and derivative transactions. Anu's practice also includes the incorporation of tax into Environmental, Social and Governance (ESG) strategies.

In addition to her practice, Anu is a member of the firm's Partnership Board and is involved with a variety of charitable and community organizations.

Effective Legal Writing Workshop

Bennett Jones Professionalism Series

Date: Summer / Fall, 2024

Course: 9:00 a.m. – 12:00 p.m.

Lunch: 12:00 p.m. – 1:00 p.m.

Course Overview

Learn to write, and therefore, think better (or different, following Apple's advice). We use a radical example (comparing a concise, precise, and direct release with a standard version) to show how just two key principles and two key tools will improve your writing—forever. Let readers focus on your ideas, without getting lost in fuzzy language.

This Bennett Jones Academy professionalism series course will focus on:

- Writing more like you speak;
- Writing for your readers;
- Being concise; and
- Using active-voice verbs.

Faculty

Stephanie C. Mitchell, B.J.H, LL.B.

Speaker & Writing Coach, Telegram Writing Consulting

Stephanie Mitchell of Telegram Writing Consulting has both a law degree and a first-class honours degree in journalism. She works with lawyers, judges, and business leaders across Canada to help them learn to write and speak more clearly and persuasively.

Stephanie has years of experience choosing the best words as a news reporter and senior producer for CBC Radio in Western Canada. She has also worked in communications for the governments of British Columbia and Canada, and for the faculties of law at the Universities of Victoria, Alberta, and Saskatchewan.

Stephanie's writing and speaking workshops are interactive and never lead to the dreaded death by PowerPoint.

Joan Bilisland

Associate

Joan Bilisland is a corporate and research lawyer. She works primarily in corporate law, assisting energy and utility companies on questions of shareholders' rights, directors' duties and responsibilities, partnerships, including limited partnerships, and real estate transactions.

Joan's experience in legal research is complemented by her Master's of Library and Information Science, for which she completed a research project on electronic research needs of lawyers. The program gave her added insight into how people use electronic information for business purposes.

Joan is a member and former President of the Canadian Bar Association Research Lawyers Section (South). She is also an Associate American Bar Association member.

Bennett Jones Academy 2024 Sessions for Students

Our Academy Leaders, Craig Kinsman and Annaliisa Sando, and Department Heads have designed the specific Bennett Jones Academy sessions for our summer and articling students that have been detailed in the preceding pages of this program guide. As a firm that is grounded in a "build from the ground up" mentality, we are dedicated to providing our students with the best resources with which to develop a successful and thriving legal career. From introductory substantive courses in Corporate Law and Litigation to professionalism courses on business etiquette, we provide a curriculum that encourages exposure to all of the major areas of law that we practice at Bennett Jones through the practical experiences and war stories of our associates and partners.

We also run intensive, week-long boot-camp training sessions for our summer and articling student classes during their onboarding. Filled with sessions introducing students to our computer systems, library services and research department, these boot-camps are designed to provide our students with the tools they need to ensure a seamless transition from law school to legal practice. Our Academy Leader is here to ensure that you are ready to face your new career with a running start.

Bennett Jones

The following pages contain a sampling of past BJA courses offered to all of our lawyers and students from January through December of each year. Learning does not end the day we graduate from law school. We recognize that our lawyers want and need to keep learning throughout their careers. Our 2024 offerings (currently in the planning stages) will cover a wide array of substantive and professionalism topics designed to provide the ongoing professional development that our lawyers want and that excellence demands.

Sleep, Eat, Move and Think Better for Exponential Health and Peak Performance

Bennett Jones Professionalism Series

Course Overview

Imagine if work was a place where you went to get healthier and perform to your potential. There are problems standing in the way of making that dream a reality. The world is faced with 4 inter-related epidemics – sleeplessness, obesity, inactivity and mental illness.

Fortunately, the scientific answers to these problems are available today. Sleep soundly, eat smarter, move more and think clearly. In this workshop, Dr. Wells presents the scientific solution to these global challenges. Using stories, research and simple tactics, Dr. Wells clearly outlines how to improve your health, supercharge your life and ultimately reach your full potential.

This Bennett Jones Academy professionalism series course will focus on:

This presentation offers concrete strategies on how to get better and stay better—not just for a few weeks or a few months, but for life. Optimal well-being is obtained through a commitment to the “holy trinity” of healthy living—eating better, moving better, sleeping better. Together these lead to peak performance and exponential improvements in your health.

Private Equity Series

Bennett Jones Substantive Series

Private Equity I – Introduction to Valuation: A Primer for Corporate Lawyers

Course Overview

An overview of the PE/investment management business and global PE investment trends, and will then walk through the fund formation process.

Private Equity II – M&A Transactions, Buyouts and Treasury Investments

Course Overview

This course will build on the foundation of session 1 by providing a detailed introduction to PE deal structuring, touching on the principal components that drive these types of transactions, including matters relating to economics/returns, governance, liquidity, exit rights, management incentive arrangements and special considerations that apply when dealing with public companies.

Private Equity III – Introduction to Private Equity M&A

Course Overview

This course will focus on PE-backed M&A transactions with a special focus on deal skills for the transactional lawyer. Topics to be covered in session 3 will include managing the due diligence process, structuring considerations (including the use of "rollover" equity), minimizing deal risk, representation & warranty insurance, equity commitment letters & limited guarantees (when dealing with a shell entity as purchaser) and other topics.

Private Equity IV – Private Equity Deal Structuring and Case Studies

Course Overview

This course brings Private Equity I, II, and III to life and serves as a lead in to our Mergers & Acquisitions Series. Using actual deal examples, this session will dissect why certain deals were structured in certain ways, why we used the agreements we did and why we conducted the due diligence and other legal work we did – all in the context of understanding what our clients were looking to achieve and how we helped them get there.

Litigation – Expert Evidence

Bennett Jones Substantive Series

Course Overview

Expert witnesses are an essential part of every complex litigation case. Cases are won and lost on expert testimony. This presentation will cover best practices for retaining and working with experts, including how to get the most out of your expert at the least cost. Mitigation of problems arising out of the disclosure of working documents will also be addressed.

This Bennett Jones Academy substantive series course will focus on:

- Identifying the experts you need;
- Finding and retaining the expert witness;
- Preparation of expert reports and disclosure of working documents;
- Preparing your expert for trial; and
- Preparing to cross-examine the opposing experts.

Litigation – Trial Preparation

Bennett Jones Substantive Series

Course Overview

As a litigation associate at Bennett Jones, you will have the opportunity to observe many different approaches to arguing a client's case at trial. While courtroom styles will differ, the fundamental aspects of trial preparation will be common to most cases. The objective of this seminar is to identify the key things to consider when preparing a case for trial, and to identify areas where a junior at trial can provide the most value.

This Bennett Jones Academy substantive series course will focus on:

- Presenting documentary evidence at trial and issues to consider in preparing Agreed Exhibit Books;
- Preparing Agreed Statements of Facts and Damages;
- Anticipating evidentiary issues at trial;
- Effectively preparing your witnesses; and
- Issues to consider in pre-trial communications with the trial judge.

Faculty

Andrea L. Froese

Partner

Andrea Froese is an effective, strategic advocate and negotiator for her clients in the health and policing fields and energy industry. Andrea knows the importance of having a thorough understanding of her clients' professions, businesses and goals to provide expert and practical advice to protect their legal and reputational interests.

In her health law practice, Andrea has over 20 years of experience representing physicians and healthcare professionals. She has defended physicians in medical negligence lawsuits at all levels of Court in Alberta, on a diverse range of medical issues and specialties. She regularly assists physicians with complaints, licensing and privileges issues and sensitive physician health and conduct matters before the College of Physicians and Surgeons of Alberta and other regulatory and administrative bodies and tribunals. In addition, Andrea provides guidance to physicians and health institutions on patient privacy and health information issues. She is an Alberta representative for a national committee on physician health and wellness issues and is the current President of the Medical Legal Society of Calgary. She is a regular speaker at national and provincial health law meetings and conferences and at the Cumming School of Medicine at the University of Calgary on medical negligence and risk management issues.

Andrea also practices in the area of policing law. She has advised Chiefs of Police, policing services and municipalities on complex legal, governance and policy issues that arise in the policing context. She has appeared on policing matters before the Courts at fatality inquiries and has represented Chiefs of Police in police discipline proceedings.

In her energy litigation practice, Andrea has represented clients in disputes involving oil sands and LNG projects in Western Canada and offshore oil and gas projects. Her energy industry experience includes matters involving purchase and sale agreements, farmout agreements and CAPL operating agreements in the Alberta Courts and at mediations and arbitrations. She has experience in assessing complex accounting and damages issues arising in the energy industry context.

Andrea has been recognized nationally by the Canadian Legal Lexpert Directory and Chambers Canada.

Prior to joining Bennett Jones, Andrea was a judicial law clerk at the Court of King's Bench and Court of Appeal of Alberta.

Energy Transaction

Bennett Jones Substantive Series

Course Overview

What distinguishes an "energy" transaction from a general corporate transaction? A discussion of transactions involving energy assets, energy project development and providing advice on legal matters relating to unique industry conditions.

This Bennett Jones Academy substantive series course will focus on:

- Distinguishing between upstream and midstream and downstream (traditional O&G);
- Overview of power and energy transformation opportunities (hydrogen and other renewables);
- Energy M&A and A&D, including equity investments by indigenous communities; and
- Typical Agreements in Project Development.

Faculty

Ashley White

Partner

Ashley's practice relates primarily to corporate and commercial transactions, with a specific focus on project development, joint ventures, and private mergers and acquisitions in the energy industry. Ashley regularly represents clients in the negotiation and drafting of energy contracts relating to the development of oil & gas and renewable resources, including ownership, operation and other types of project agreements. She also advises clients on contractual issues arising from construction, procurement, and service-related agreements.

Ashley assists clients in the acquisition and divestiture of energy-related projects and assets, including the negotiation and completion of complex purchase and sale transactions, and general corporate/commercial matters in connection with corporate reorganizations.

She brings to her practice complementary experience in advising clients on, and the negotiation of, joint ventures between industry and Indigenous communities in connection with equity ownership and investments in natural resource projects in Western Canada.

Ashley is a committee member of the Canadian Energy Law Foundation Jasper Seminar and is a member of the Petroleum Acquisition and Divestiture Association. She is on the board of directors for The Women's Centre in Calgary and has previously served as a committee member and director on other non-profits in Calgary and Edmonton. Ashley is also the Chair of the Student Recruitment Committee in Calgary.

Luke Morrison

Partner

Luke's practice focuses on quarterbacking transactions involving oil and gas and power/renewable energy assets, particularly in the areas of: M&A/purchase and sale deals; commercial aspects of insolvency and restructuring; Indigenous joint ventures and co-ownership; and commercial project development contract matters.

Luke has acted as lead counsel on a diverse range of landscape-shaping transactions in the Canadian energy sector, from conventional oil and gas to large-scale renewable projects. Highlights of Luke's recent mandates include the acquisition of Canada's largest urban solar project, the ongoing development of Canada's largest proposed integrated blue hydrogen production project and multiple landmark/precedentsetting energy insolvency deals.

Luke assists energy clients on a full spectrum of project development matters, including co-ownership structuring (governance and ESG), joint development issues, operations, marketing, and supply/off-take transactions. He has developed specialized expertise in advising on energy transformation projects (such as petrochemicals, helium, solar, wind and hydrogen) and the application of new energy technologies, such as in relation to lithium extraction, blockchain, small modular reactors and well site/facility re-purposing.

Luke serves as a board member of The Educational Partnership Foundation, a not-for-profit charity that provides support for Canadian youth with literacy, book donation and trades training programs, including for Indigenous and remote communities where there is a gap in existing programs.

Luke is also a member of the Student Recruitment Committee in Calgary.
