Brian Reid has a diverse commercial litigation practice with a strong emphasis on construction and energy related disputes. Brian assists international and domestic owners, contractors and engineers with the review and drafting of construction and joint venture contracts and tender documents. He also has extensive experience with builder's lien disputes.

Brian represents major institutional clients in complex multi-party litigation and is involved in domestic and international mediation and arbitration with respect to significant commercial disputes. Brian also appears before administrative tribunals and all levels of courts in Alberta.

In addition to extensive commercial litigation experience, Brian has also worked as in-house legal counsel for a TSX-Listed oil and gas drilling company and a large manufacturing company in the State of Qatar.

Brian is a former Executive Committee Member for the National Construction and Infrastructure Law Section of the Canadian Bar Association and has volunteered with Calgary Legal Guidance and the Student Legal Assistance Society (Calgary).

Brian currently serves as a Director for the Calgary International Language Foundation (a sister society to the Calgary French and International School Society).
